There's No Place Like Vogue

1. At SCHWUNG, handcrafted artistry unites solid brass and glass in timeless harmony, creating enlightened objects designed to last for generations. The Odyssey 12 chandelier, with twelve frosted curves of varying dimensions, radiates a soft glow in a mesmerising cascade, seamlessly connecting past and present. Visit www.schwung.design and follow @schwung.design on Instagram.

2. BUZZBY AND FANG is a small, one man studio based in Melbourne, Australia. It produces sculptural objects, in vitreous porcelain and stoneware, with a sumptuous palette of colour and texture. Within the forms are nods to Japanese minimalism and the mid century aesthetic, however, they present their own distinct style. Visit www.buzzbyandfang.com.au and follow @buzzbyandfang on Instagram.

3. WE MADE SOMETHING NICE is a homeware brand celebrating life's little pleasures. Featuring unique designs and a nostalgic colour palette, these prints bring a whimsical and warm touch to any space. Explore the full collection at www.wemadesomethingnice.com and follow @wemadesomethingnice on Instagram.

4. The Potter Sconce by GIFFIN DESIGN is cast in solid brass and offered in a variety of finishes. With its natural textures and elegant craftsmanship, it strikes a perfect balance between function and artistry, making it an ideal choice for refined, intimate spaces seeking timeless, handcrafted lighting. Visit www.giffindesign.com and visit @giffindesign on Instagram.

5. French homeware brand LA CASANO, takes inspiration from far afield to further their aim: infuse elegance and poetry into every detail of your interior. Their vision is one of a cosy, functional, and harmonious home, combining elegance with colour, with an emphasis on fine craftsmanship. A handcrafted textile waste basket features traditional ikat fabric with geometric patterns and earthy tones, elevating a functional item through the ancient art of hand-dyeing and weaving. Visit www.lacasano.com and follow @lacasano on Instagram.

6. From intimate dinners to festive garden parties, FLAMEFIELD's break-resistant glassware and tableware elevates every moment. With a legacy of craftsmanship, they blend practicality with exquisite design. Flamefield brings durable elegance to every gathering. Visit flamefield.co and follow @flamefieldofficial on Instagram.

7. AM LIVING's Capsule Collection: Echoes of Serenity. Inspired by nature's tranquillity, this limited-edition collection embodies quiet luxury, harmony, and elegance. Discover timeless furniture designs for your home at amliving.com and follow @amlivingfurniture on Instagram.

8. IMUI DESIGN is a 3D design lab based in Barcelona, specialising in custom, on-demand lamps crafted from biodegradable materials. Each piece is individually made, blending minimalist design with sustainable innovation. Explore the collection at www.imuidesign.com and follow @imuidesign on Instagram.

9. TEEMU VIDGREN is a Finnish designer and interior architect who works with furniture, textiles and spaces. His artworks are a minimalist combination of vernacular and modern design, inspired by Finnish nature and traditional houses; you can also see nuances from Japan and Italy. Beautiful, natural raw materials are strongly visible in his works. Explore teemuvidgren.com and follow @teemuvidgren on Instagram.

10. JONE MYKING focuses on responsible material use and sustainable production. The furniture is handcrafted in Norway from selectively harvested pine in Telemark. Myking combines traditional craftsmanship techniques with a modern design language, emphasising the natural properties of the materials. Visit jonemyking.com and follow @jone_myking on Instagram.

11. NID, pronounced nee, is French for nest - Sarah Chehab's home textile brand Nid explores the notion of home as a physical space as well as a place of belonging. Handcrafted in Lebanon as a starting point, objects are made from quality materials with time-honoured techniques. They favour a slow craft ethos in the face of a fast-paced and consumerist oriented design sphere. Sarah's aim is to build a library of contemporary patterns using regional traditional crafts, valuing artisan input. Visit www.nidobjects.com and follow @nid.objects on Instagram.

12. SARA ULLVETTER is a Swedish design studio and furniture manufacturer, merging the essence of Scandinavian design with a modern twist. Utilising authentic, earthy materials, the collection boasts an inherent charm. Celebrating the storied Scandinavian craftsmanship, the collection seamlessly fuses tradition with today's innovative designs, delivering pieces marked by elegance, refinement, and poetic expression. All meticulously handcrafted in Sweden of solid Swedish or European wood to last for generations. Visit sarauullvetter.se and follow @sarauullvetterdesign on Instagram.
